2. Read the following passage and answer the questions given below :

$2\frac{1}{2}$

- (a) It is better to give hope and strength and courage than money. The best help is not to bear the troubles of others for them but to inspire them with courage and energy to bear their burdens for themselves and meet the difficulties of life with bravery. To help others is not an easy matter, but requires a clear head, a wise judgement as well as a warm heart. We must be careful not to undermine independence in our anxiety to relieve distress. It is important, therefore so far as possible not so much as to give a man bread as to put him in the way of earning it. We must try to help our neighbours as much as we can but every man is duly bound to stand on his own feet.
